Getting to Pilani

How to reach the campus from Delhi?

By Road

Distance is 200 or 230 km depending on the route taken and takes about 4.5 hours. There are three routes to get to Pilani (in order of preference) by road

Delhi-Gurgaon-Sultanpur-Farukh Nagar-Jhajjar-Charkhi Dadri-Loharu-Pilani is the shortest and traffic-free road. (Safest for night)

Delhi-Gurgaon-Dharuhera-Rewari-Narnaul-Singhana-Chirawa-Pilani is a newly laid two-lane road and not very crowded.

Delhi-Rohtak-Bhiwani-Loharu-Pilani is not recommended as it is a densely populated route.

Getting to Pilani

By BUS

If you prefer to travel by public transport, you must catch a bus at the Inter State Bus Terminal (ISBT), Kashmiri Gate, Delhi. There are frequent buses to Pilani starting from Delhi around 5:30 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. and take about 6 hours to reach.

You could even catch a bus from Dhaula Kuan or Rajiv Chowk-Gurgaon to Chirawa (15 km from Pilani). You can take a cab or shared auto from there.

How to reach the campus
from Delhi?

By Train

There are frequent trains running from Delhi Sarai Rohilla to Loharu station going via Delhi Cantt, Gurgaon and Rewari. Loharu is 22.5 km from Pilani and there is a regular bus service between the two towns or you could book a cab for around Rs. 500-600, you can always find someone to pool the cab with very easily. Click here for train details.

A couple of trains which are preferred by BITSians are the Delhi Bikaner Superfast Express (22472, 8:40 am - 11:30 am) and DEE JU Superfast Express (22482, 11:10pm - 1:58am)

Getting to Pilani

How to reach the campus from Jaipur?

By Road

Distance is about 224 km and takes about 5hrs.

Route 1: Jaipur - Chomu - Pilani

Route 2: Jaipur - Nawalgarh - Pilani.

Though there are other routes, these are the most preferred.

By Train

From Jaipur, the nearest station towards Pilani is the Chirawa Railway station and tickets for the same are less than Rs. 350 for sleeper class. From Chirawa you will have to take a rickshaw to Pilani, which is easily available outside the station. It's about 45 minutes from the BITS main gate. Link

By BUS

How to reach the campus
from Jaipur?

If you prefer to travel by public transport, you must catch a bus from the State Bus Terminal (Sindhi Camp), Jaipur. There are frequent buses to Pilani starting from Jaipur around 4:00 AM till midnight. There are many private bus companies available but avoid them unless absolutely necessary as the experience is below par. These buses stop in between until the bus is full which increases the travel time. There are 3 RSRTC Super Deluxe AC buses in the day priced at Rs. 440 which give a relatively better experience. If not RSRTC, choose the better-rated bus available. Upto 50% concession is given to female passengers in RSRTC buses.

Various Other Routes

- Mumbai freshers can catch a direct train from Mumbai to Loharu
- Gujarat freshers can catch a bus directly from their city to Pilani
- Freshers from South Indian states should prefer a flight to Delhi and then above mentioned Delhi routes.
- Chandigarh freshers can catch a bus directly from Tribune Chowk at 9:30 PM and the bus will drop you off at Pilani bus station around 2 AM, it's a sleeper bus and costs around Rs. 1300.

Places To Stay In Pilani

Most parents manage to stay in their ward's hostel room for the early few days they stay on campus. Meera Bhawan (Girls Hostel) is prohibited for gents. However, fathers of female students may request accommodation in one of the boys' hostels for the first few days. Apart from this, there is a list of hotels in and around Pilani where one can seek accommodation.
